CHAMP CLARK URGES DEMOCRATS TO SUPPORT WILSON. (By Clyde H. Tamm, Member of Congress.)

WASHINGTON, March 26. Speaker Champ Clark intends to cooperate in wholehearted sincerity with President Wilson to carry out the promises contained in the Baltimore platform. From the moment convention adjourned, he never had any other thought in view but to educate the nation on the merits of the Democratic platform. He has taken every opportunity to advise every Democrat to work and pull together for the success of the administration and the good of the party.

That Champ Clark is not the kind of man to sink, and that he will be borne home forcibly to every Democratic member of the new House at this recent caucus at which the Speaker was unanimously re-elected to preside over the Sixty-third Congress. Unfortunately, no newspaper reports were permitted to be present at this caucus, and the ringing speech made by Speaker Clark on behalf of party solidarity did not get into the newspapers to any appreciable extent. I have the consent of the Speaker as well as the Democratic caucus to publish such parts of the speech as I desire. Space will not permit the printing of the complete remarks of the Speaker, which is to be regretted, because the speech is a complete refutation of the intimations which have appeared in the press recently to the effect that Mr. Clark is unfriendly to the new administration.

"Since the foundation of our government," said Mr. Clark, "no party ever had a fairer prospect of a long tenure of power or a better chance of promoting the welfare than the Democratic party has. What will we do with our opportunity? The voters have only placed us on probation. Can we make good? Can we vindicate the vast army of voters who gave us the power to conduct the government? Undoubtedly we can.

"How? By keeping faith with the people. By religiously carrying out the promises by reason of which we won. By transmitting into law our pledges to improve the conditions under which we live. If we do this the people will recognize it and approve our conduct.

"There is no doubt what our promises were. They were written large in the Baltimore platform. Our first promise was a tariff for revenue only, and to give the people that, as close an approximation thereto as possible, is the first duty of the new administration and of the new Congress; and in passing, it may be said, and ought to be said, that tariff reduction which does not reduce the cost of living is not worth the paper on which it is printed.

"Following that we promised to strengthen the anti-trust law; to establish an income tax; to revise the banking laws; to improve our waterways; to provide for a reasonable conservation system; to create a department of labor, which we have already done; and to declare the nation's purpose touching the Philippines. It is an extensive program, but it is our duty to work it out. The only way to achieve it is for every Democrat in official position to give the best there is in him to help reduce our promises by subordinating individual ambition to the public weal.

"That any man fit for official station will let his personal likes or dislikes interfere with his co-operating with any other Democrat in utilizing the party in its herculean and multifarious task to redeem our pledges and thereby contributing, as I believe, to the increased prosperity and happiness of the American people, is a thing incredible. The suggestion of such a state of affairs comes from malignant marplots who, though masquerading as Democrats, are not Democrats at all, but wolves in sheep's clothing. Certain of these venomous eleven-hour Democrats are loud-mouthed in proclaiming trouble where none exists and in place cards and favors being St. Patrick emblems. After the Irish jokes and stories passed around the table till the guests felt quite in the task of rising, when some of the guests indulged in a little too much of the Irish spirit. Those who enjoyed this pleasant occasion were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Keath, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bickley, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ellis, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Barry, Judge and Mrs. W. W. ## "WHITE WAY" TO BE INVESTIGATED.

The Merchants' Committee of the Mexico Commercial Club was empowered Friday, at the luncheon, to investigate the cost of a Modern White Way for the business district and learn the difference in cost between it and the proposed lighting of the business section as well as instructed to raise funds to pay the difference if they considered the proposed plan not exactly as they desired.

The matter of a Commission form of Government was referred to the Legislative Committee for investigation and report.

Secretary Race stated the two days' meeting next week to organize an Andrair County Farm Bureau would be largely attended and urged every member of the Club to consider himself a reception committee of one.

HUSBAND TIRED OF SEEING HER SUFFER

Procured Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which made His Wife a Well Woman.

Middletown, Pa.—"I had headache, backache and such awful bearing down pains that I could not be on my feet at times and I had organic inflammation so badly that I was not able to do my work. I could not get a good meal for my husband and myself. My neighbors said they thought my suffering was terrible.

"My husband got tired of seeing me suffer and one night went to the drug store and got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told me to take it. I can't tell you all I suffered and I can't tell you all that your medicine has done for me. I was greatly benefited from the first and it has made me a well woman. I can do all my household work and even help some of my friends as well. I think it is a wonderful help to all suffering women. I have got several to take it after seeing what it has done for me."—Mrs. EMMA EPPENSHADE, 219 East Main St., Middletown, Pa.

The Pinkham record is a proud and honorable one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of woman. It has done what no other medicine has done. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be answered at once and by a woman and held in strict confidence.
